Working activities performed before and after my degree supported my attitude in communication and developped my performance in positions where decision making is essential for the management of crisis situations.

My ability in keeping in contact with partners and defining roles with colleagues has a key function in my freamework planning, and I use to consider this qualities as basic for solving both expected and unexpected problems.My rule of responsabile estero AITF developed my social and communication skills

My working experience developped my ability in administrating financial and human resources and, more important, a realistic idea of balance between this two important matters. I also acquired expertise in teamwork management, working on trans-national project;

Good knowledge of Office and of programs for statistical management, such as SPSS. Excellent experience in Internet and Intranet networks as communication and information search tools.

Driving licence for car and moto

Swimming teacher licence.
